To Infinity and Beyond: Portfolios, Marketing Yourself, and More!

This is Just the Beginning...

- Keep working on portfolio projects

- Participate in a data contest

- Stay in touch

- Woz for Life

Portfolio Projects

- You MUST have more than one project to be competitive

- Get guidance from us

- Best way to get a job in data science

- Participate in data contests (ours or others like Kaggle)

Woz for Life

- Remain in the slack channel

- Access to all new workshops

- New content updates by request

- Career services for life (if you already have them)

- Participate in contests, office hours, and any other extras

Marketing Yourself

• Sell yourself

• List out your strengths and weaknesses

• Don't be afraid to advocate for yourself

• Battle imposter syndrome

Create an Elevator Speech

- No more than a paragraph explaining:
  - Who you are
  - What you do
  - What your career goals are

- Practice it

- Use it in networking

Get Involved!

- LinkedIn

- Free conferences

- Meet Ups

- Stay connected to your fellow peers
